"The symbols of the Millikin Seal are enclosed in an equilateral triangle which signifies the equality and unity of all branches of learning as well as the trinity of the human mind, body, and spirit. The details of the Seal consist of the palette of the artist, the hammer of the mechanic, the pen of the man of letters, the alembic of the scientist, the open Holy Bible, and the lighted torch of learning. Behind the triangle and its enclosed symbols are the outlines of a shield, symbol of valor, as if to say the University is their defender and champion..."

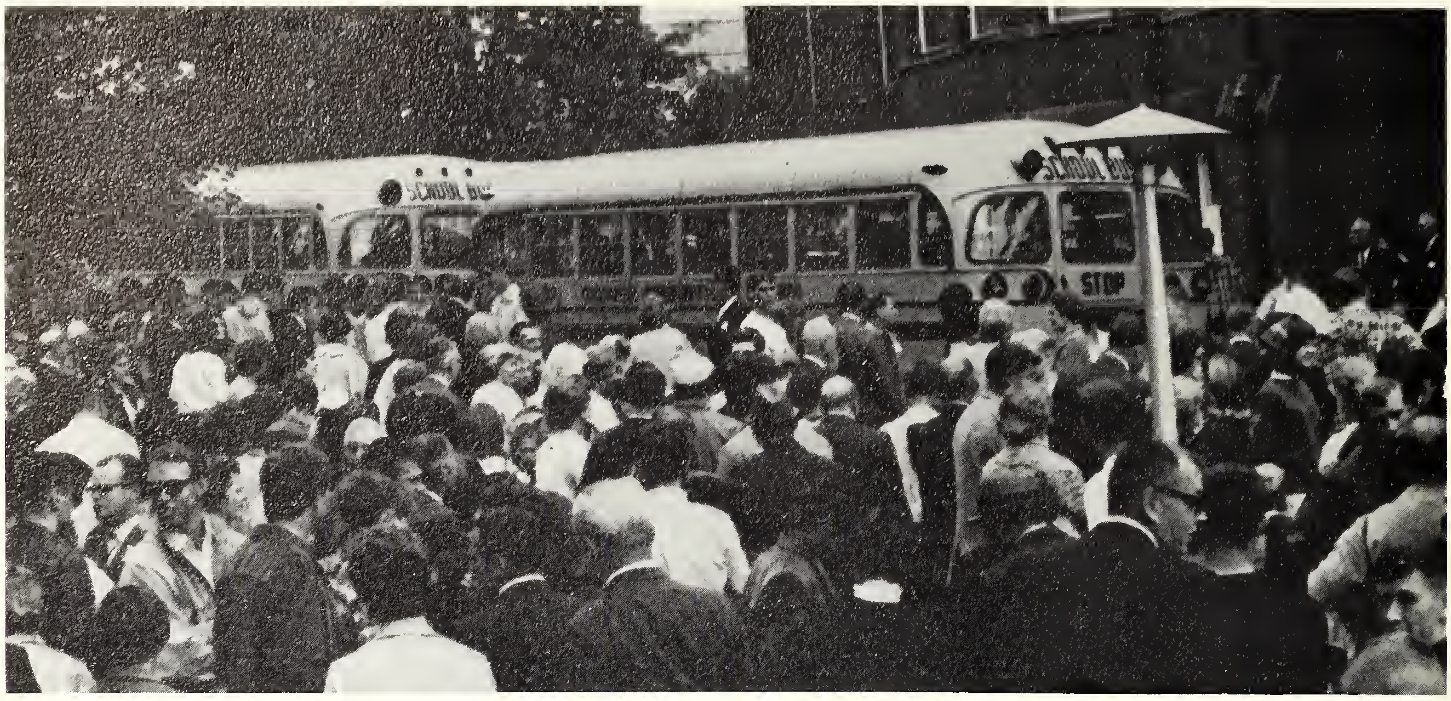
ACTIVITIES



Freshmen say good-bye . . . and begin their life at Millikin.

FRESHMAN CAMP

Allerton Park sets the scene for our freshmen's first view of college life. Away from the pressures of campus, freshmen meet their fellow students during a weekend of games, dancing, hiking, and discussions. The history and traditions of Millikin are presented impressively at the burning of the big "M." The freshmen receive a practical picture of M.U. from the counselors and through group discussions. Freshman Camp, however, takes a serious slant on Sunday morning as the campers attend an inspiring religious service. After a busy weekend, the freshmen return to campus exhausted, yet with a feeling of anticipation and ENTHUSIASM.

Delving for a deeper understanding, freshmen and counselors work together.

Hope there are enough bedrolls to go around.

ALL SCHOOL MIXER

The 1965-66 school year began with much enthusiasm and excitement as the annual All School Mixer drew crowds of Millikin students. Coeds relaxed and enjoyed themselves while renewing old acquaintances and catching up on all of the latest campus chatter.

And my name is . . .

PARENT'S DAY

Millikin's 1965 Fall Parent's Day attracted large numbers of interested mothers and fathers. Following morning registration, the parents attended an assembly, which was a panel discussion led by Dean Carlson on "Quest For Creativity." The afternoon football game was highlighted by the presentation of a silver tray to the honored parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Sloan. The activities were concluded with open houses at the residence halls and Greek houses.

"DOWNSTAIRS"

Macon and Fairview Halls, men's and women's honor dorms respectively, sponsor "Downstairs". A coffee house atmosphere sets the scene for folk-singing, art exhibits, dramatic readings, and lively discussions. Millikin faculty and students are invited to offer their opinions and to participate in programs not normally available on the campus.

Students carry on individual discussion groups.

A student leader stimulates thought.

"Why Lord Windermere, you really shouldn't have!"

TOWN AND GOWN

Millikin's drama group is composed of Millikin students and townspeople; hence the name, Town and Gown. Under the direction of Dr. Jere C. Mickel, several productions are presented each year for the enjoyment of the public. Millikin boasts a series of guest artists who joined a local student cast for the University's major productions.

"Angus! You always say the most stupid things!"

"Lady Windermere, if I had my way..."

In their fourth American tour, Eden & Tamir joined the Abbey Singers to present a duo-piano and vocal ensemble. The concert featured Brahms' Opus 52 and other selections.

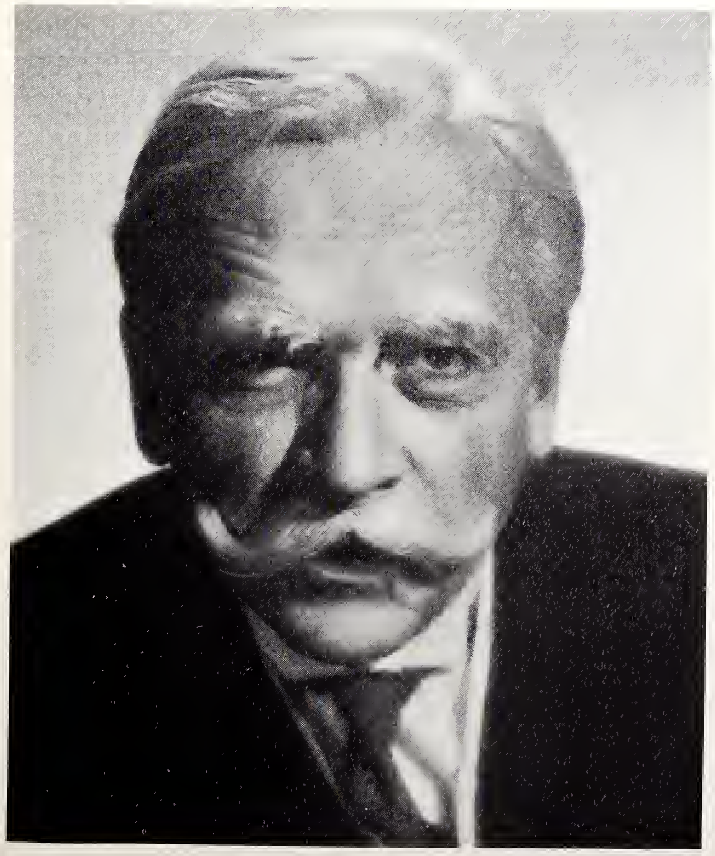
FINE ARTS

A program of an outstanding dance duo with a narrator was presented by Michael Maule and Colleen Corkre on February 11 and 12. The dancers' routine included classical and modern dance of all types.

Leslie Parnas, a well known cellist who studied with Piatigorsky, performed on the Millikin campus on December 3 and 4. Parnas is a winner of the Casals International Contest and was chosen second in the Tchaikovsky competition.

Rey de la Torre, well known Cuban guitarist, was featured on the Millikin stage March 11 and 12. The guitarist studied in Spain and has frequently performed on television.

As a gift of the Leventritt International Foundation, Millikin offered a concert by Charles Castleman, an outstanding young violinist. The Foundation sponsors one year of the careers of especially gifted young artists.



William Paterson, director of the Cleveland Playhouse, presented a dramatic biography, in his own words, of Supreme Court Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes.

The 1965 Homecoming brought alumni, parents, and guests to the campus to enjoy the festivities. Friday night started the activities with the student Homecoming Show and the judging of the house decorations-all based on the theme, "Video View of Millikin U." Other Friday highlights included the freshman-sophomore games, and the bonfire and pep rally. It was late to bed and early to rise Saturday morning as parents and alums began invading the campus. First on the agenda was the Homecoming parade. The excitement began with a victory over Carroll College, and continued with the marching band and the Homecoming Queen. To add the final touch to a week end of hard work and excitement, the Four Saints played two performances; later everyone danced to the music of Wayne Karr and his orchestra. After a thrilling week end the alums were homeward bound. Tired, but full of memories, they look forward to their return next fall and another Homecoming.

BLACKBURN HALL DEDICATION

The dedication of Blackburn Hall was an added attraction to the 1965 Homecoming schedule. Millikin was honored by the presence of Miss Bonnie Blackburn, a teacher of French at the university from 1909 to 1956, who expressed her gratitude at the dedication ceremony. The climax of the dedication was the unveiling of a hand-painted portrait of Miss Blackburn, which now hangs in the Hall.

Although freshmen and sophomores were disappointed when they awoke Friday morning to a dreary, rainy day, it was a common opinion that the games must go on in spite of the weather. CAMPUS PROLOGUE

STUDENT-FACULTY RETREAT

Each February Student Senate sponsors Millikin's Student-Faculty Retreat in the spacious Allerton Mansion. Goals of the weekend are to bring students and their instructors together in informal, thought-provoking discussions. This year's topic, "Will Success Spoil Society?" stimulated enthusiasm among all present and brought out a number of intriguing concepts and theories.

Two other guest speakers, Dr. Leroy Augenstein and Dr. Walter Hipple added vivacity to the week's discussions. The main topic of discussion was "The Religious and Secular in Contemporary Society."

GREEK WEEK

Greek Week, 1965, was a busy one for Millikin's fraternity men and women. The week helped to strengthen the common bonds of friendship, loyalty, and responsibility among Greeks. The Greek Olympics, dinner exchanges, traditional picnic, retreat, and dance were some of the many activities.

STUDENT SENATE

The Student Senate is the representative body which serves as the primary channel for the effective expression of student opinion. Through this body the students have chosen to take an active role in making changes in student life which keep pace with the academic changes of the university. Recent examples of the effectiveness of this body are the elimination of Homecoming floats, the acquisition of a "Dead Day", and the more radical break with tradition-the abolishing of class officers.

STUDENT ADMISSIONS CORPS

Students who show a special enthusiasm toward Millikin and a desire to spread their enthusiasm to others are selected, by petition, to join the Student Admissions Corps. The corps aids the admissions staff by assisting in organized campus tours for Parents' Day and Campus Prologue. In addition, the group leads individual tours and tries to answer any questions - especially those which the prospective students might feel are too trivial to ask an admissions counselor. Members of the corps are not idle during vacations. At Christmas a tea was held in St. Louis for members of Student Admissions Corps and prospective Millikin students.

JUDICIARY BOARD

In its second year on campus, the Judiciary Board serves as a committee for hearing charges against university students and offering recommendations of disciplinary action to the proper administrative officials. The main objective of Millikin's Judiciary Board is to assist the students and to help solve any problems confronting the university.

STUDENT AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

The Student Affairs Committee governs student life and formulates policies concerning the student activities on campus. The committee is composed of selected faculty members, Student Senate President and Vice President, Panhellenic and Inter-Fraternity Council representatives, Inter-Dorm Council representatives, and non-affiliated town students.

PUBLICATIONS BOARD

Publications Board is composed of the editors, business managers, publications photographers, faculty advisors of the four student publications, four representatives from Student Senate, and Dean of Students. The Board, an executive committee directly responsible to the Senate and Faculty, meets once a month to discuss matters pertinent to the publications. This Board also selects the editors and business managers of the publications: the Millidek, the Decaturian, the Student-Faculty Directory, and the Student Handbook.

Business Manager: Elmer Turner

The DECATURIAN took on a decisive "new look" in the 1965-1966 school year. The editors instigated three innovations to improve communications for the entire Millikin campus. Newsprint became the medium for printing. Six-page papers were printed regularly. The issuance of the DEC came on Wednesday instead of on Friday, so M.U. could be better informed about weekend activities on the campus. Elmer Turner, Business Manager, did a very competent job with the DEC's finances. Also, recognition goes to Mr. Jerry Redford, Faculty Advisor, for his valuable advice and assistance.

A select group of faculty members and students compose Phi Kappa Phi, the national honor society at Millikin. Only 10% of the senior class may be elected, and a cumulative average of at least 3.25 is required to qualify. Second semester juniors with averages of 3.5 are also eligible. Twice a year undergraduates are elected to membership. Each member receives a pin and certificate.

WHO'S WHO

Students are selected for membership in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities on the basis of leadership, character, citizenship, and scholarship. Candidates are nominated and judged by the joint effort of Student Senate, the Faculty, and the Student Affairs Committee. In intramural sports, the chapter dominated the gridiron and the cinder track. The brothers also took an active part in the Lincoln State School for the Mentally Retarded Fund Drive as well as in other charitable causes. Socially, the Carnation Formal, the "Animal Farm" Pledge Dance, and the Sailors' Ball, in addition to many enjoyable exchanges and parties, marked a very successful year. The men of Delta Sigma Phi would like to express sincere appreciation for the loyal service of Mrs. Ollie Jones, Mr. William Williams, Mr. Richard Castleman, and the Sphinx Club in guiding the Delta Sig's to another memorable year.

SENIOR PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

The Senior Panhellenic Council of Millikin University is the body which governs Panhellenic rushing, pledging, and initiation. The Council maintains, on a high plane, fraternity life and inter-fraternity relations within Millikin. The Council also furthers fine intellectual accomplishments and sound scholarship.

JUNIOR PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

The Junior Panhellenic Council is composed of pledges of the four women's fraternities represented in the College Panhellenic Association on this campus. The Council's purpose is to promote inter-fraternity spirit and friendliness, to encourage good scholarship, to provide the training for later participation in college Panhellenic, and to assist in the planning of fall rush.

PIGSKIN REVIEW

The 1965-66 edition of Millikin football proved most frustrating and goes on record as being a disappointing campaign, one which should have been better and could have been better with a little luck of the pigskin. The Big Blue lost a few tough games, and their overall season record is not a true indication of the material which was available and set into action by Coach "Mel" Bishop and Assistant Jack Butts. Dennis Winkler played outstanding ball for Millikin throughout the season until suffering a broken hand prior to the season finale. Paul Shaw picked up where he left off last season by playing "hard-nose" football. John Manner added depth to the Millikin line and won university player of the game honors for two successive weekends. The three together, Winkler, Shaw, and Manner, will serve as tri-captains of next year's Millikin football team. To add to this strong returning nucleus, further talent is available in hard-running Steve Mathias who will undoubtedly split his duties between halfback and fullback.

BLUE MAINSTAYS

The 1965-66 basketball season was characterized by a "streaky" squad of players who staged an "up and down" campaign. A sputtering offensive attack hampered the Big Blue during the early season, and scholastic ineligibilities cut deep into Millikin's attack during the remainder of the season. Roy Washington, Jack Sunderlik, and George Garr were declared scholastically ineligible, and all-conference guard Jimmy Harris was drafted into the Army. John Black had an "off" first half of the season, but he came back during the second half to display his usual outstanding "playmaker" duties. The high spot of the season focused on Jesse Price, an outstanding front liner from Indianapolis, Indiana. Price, never before confronted with varsity competition, came to Millikin and put his "backyard" basketball abilities into effective use in CCI play.

CROSS COUNTRY

Coach Ralph Allan had a challenging cross country season in trying to mold his material into a contending squad. Several of last year's team members decided to devote more time to the books and left Allan with quite a gap to fill. Successfully filling the bill were sophomores Ken Lebeck, Bill Hoyer, and Bill Beebe, who was elected honorary team captain at the end of the season. Dave Clutts and Tim Logston also performed steadily throughout the season.

WRESTLING

Led by Captain Charlie Haug, Millikin's wrestling team was much improved this season. Sophomores Bob Bayha and Ken Lebeck added depth to Millikin's point production. Doug Zemke, all-state high school wrestler, returned to the sport this season.

BASEBALL

Millikin's baseball fortunes for the 1965-66 school year were based on the big bats of third baseman, Roe Skidmore, catcher "Baldy" Reid, and second baseman, Mike Jurgens. Outfield help was added by Herb Friedman and Chuck Yurieci. With the help of Skidmore, Jurgens, and Reid, Millikin proved a strong contender for conference honors.

TRACK

This year's track squad presented a variety of talent. Coach Jack Butts relied on Warren Waters in the dashes and hurdles; Bill Beebe and Ken Lebeck in the distance runs; and John Irish, Jim Hodges, and Jim Greenawalt in the weight divisions, for an unusually well-balanced squad.

MEN'S TENNIS

The tennis squad, hit hard by graduation, was certainly scheduled for a rebuilding season. Blue net men hopes were placed on the keen performance of the 1965 singles champion, Jerry Born. Tom Barnett, John Keith, and Tom Hill assumed regular net duties. Rugged CCI competition fostered the development of fine individual players as well as an outstanding team.

GOLF

The 1966 golf season proved interesting because of an added interest in the sport on the Millikin campus. Coach Don Williams took his golf squad through a grueling schedule featuring conference and invitational meets. Sophomore Gary Anderson was billed as the Blue's number one player for the season. All other positions were open and ready for the up and coming golfers.

Ready for tee-off.

"M" MAN

The 1966 Millidek has selected MIKE JURGENS as "M" Man. Mike's scholastic achievements, qualities of sportsmanship, and extracurricular activities make him a "shoe-in" choice for this honor.

Mike is an outstanding individual who shows composure on and off the athletic field. His leadership qualities range from captaining "Big Blue" squads to student teaching in mathematics. At Millikin, Mike has participated in football, basketball, and baseball. Statistics prove that Mike has been the "Big Blue" leading passer for the past three years and led the baseball team in hitting last spring. While a sophomore at M.U., Mike guided the "Big Blue" baseball team to a CCI championship. Mike, his wife Ann, and their son Kirk have proved that young married co-eds can be most successful. Upon graduation, Mike plans to concentrate on teaching and coaching.

MEN'S INTRAMURALS

This year's men's intramural program gave all non-athletes interested in team sports an opportunity to participate in a variety of events. Under the leadership of Coach Don Williams and Dr. Hermens, "flag football", volleyball, basketball, bowling, baseball, golf, and track were presented during the course of the school year.

HIGHLIGHTING MISS DOROTHY McCLURE

The spring of 1966 marks the thirtieth year that Miss Dorothy McClure has served Millikin University. Throughout her years on the Millikin faculty she has been known as a hard worker, excellent teacher, and friend of everyone. "Dora" has watched Millikin grow in size and stature throughout her years as Women's Physical Education Coordinator, and has herself served her university in numerous academic capacities. It is with a great deal of appreciation and gratitude that we recognize Miss McClure for her thirty years of duty and service to Millikin University.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

Tryouts are held each spring to select those women qualified for the Millikin Women's Tennis Team. Of the girls who compete, ten or twelve are chosen to represent Millikin in the annual spring tennis tournament. The weekend attracts entries from over twenty mid-western colleges.

POM PON SQUAD

Performing the dual role of providing half-time entertainment and arousing school spirit at basketball games, the Pom-Pon Squad successfully completed its fourth year. The squad had a new look this year with its new bright blue uniforms and pom-pons.

The girls started practicing early in November and worked hard until late February. Next year, the squad hopes to expand its organization to include not only basketball games but also football games.

Steffann Holliger

IN MEMORIAM

In the years that Steffann was among us, she endeared herself to the hearts of those who knew her. Preparing for a full-time Christian education, she lived her faith day by day. In due time she came to realize that she would not achieve her goal of a full life of service. Yet in a sense she did achieve it; because, enduring as seeing Him Who is invisible, she is still a witness to the faith that "all things work together for good, to them that love God."

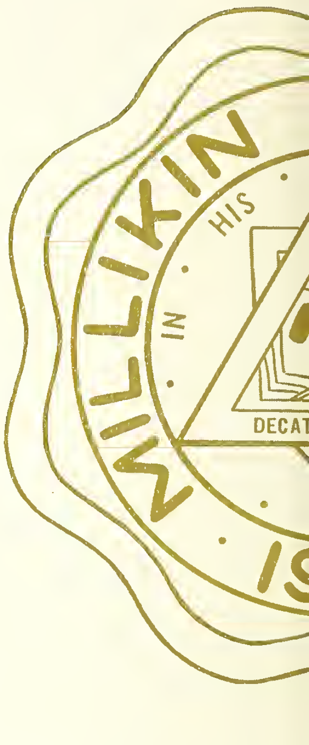
Dancing in the snow.



Professor Varnum of the Art Department designed and executed a seal early in 1904. At the request of the senior class of 1905, the design was copyrighted for use by Millikin graduates only. This original Millikin Seal consisted of the hammer of the mechanic, the palette of the artist, the pen of the man of letters, and the lighted torch of learning enclosed in a shield and an equilateral triangle. Upon the separation of Lincoln College and the "Decatur College and Industrial School," both of which formerly constituted "The James Millikin University," the original seal of the old university was redrawn under the direction of Professor Jarold Talbot. The words "Decatur College and Industrial School" which appeared on the original Seal were deleted. "James Millikin University" was altered to "Millikin University" and the words Decatur, Illinois, were added. The palette of the artist was removed and in its place was drawn a chemist's alembic, thus recognizing the natural sciences which had been without a particular symbol. The pen remained, though in a different position, as the symbol of both the literary and fine arts. An open Bible was placed in the background to remind us of the Christian origin and purposes of the institution. In using as its theme the various elements of the Seal, the 1966 Millidek has tried to depict the multi-phase educational patterns distinctive at Millikin; "in these things abundance and strength are to be found."

Diploma

Given at Peoria, in the State of Illinois.

June 5, 1937.

SEAL

Is this a Lifetime Guarantee for you? Far from it.

A diploma is a sign of achievement. It's important. In fact, most employers today consider it pretty essential.

But it's no guarantee.

It won't get you a good job, or a new car, or any material thing. It doesn't even guarantee that you can hold your head up when you look in a mirror.

What counts is what you do now.

You can just say, "Okay, world, here I am with a diploma. What are you going to give me?"

Or you can use the abilities you were born with—and the knowledge you've gained so far—to make your life a worthwhile and useful one.

This way takes effort, and ambition. But the rewards can be great. Today's world offers exciting opportunities.

A diploma will improve your chances for success.

But it's no guarantee.

AT MUELLER CO....

...we have always been proud of Millikin University, its graduates and its contributions to the Decatur community. As part of this community, we help support Millikin's growth and progress through grants to the school and scholarships to deserving students. At the same time, a number of Millikin alumni are making major contributions to the success and growth of Mueller Co. as members of our field sales organization or as middle management personnel.

This growth and success of Mueller Co. started in 1857, and today it has six plants in the United States and Canada. It is recognized as a leading manufacturer of iron and brass products for the distribution and control of water and natural gas—two of the basic industries so vital to the health, security and prosperity of this country.

Congratulations, Graduates of 1966!
